TABLE OF CONTENTS

From the Editor vii

Who Are Our Actual National Leaders? 1
Yerker Andersson

Deaf Autonomy and Deaf Dependence
The Early Years of the Pennsylvania Society for the Advancement of the Deaf 5
Reginald L. Boyd and John V. Van Cleve

The Past and the Present of Deaf Theatres Around the World 17
Bernard Bragg

The Canadian Deaf Community
A Distinctive, Diverse and Enduring Culture 21
Clifton F. Carbin and Dorothy L. Smith

Sailing Uncharted Waters. 27
Edward C. Carney

The NFSD Delavan Division No. 80 Story
(From the Division Minutes) 31
Jean K. Cordano

Addendum — The NFSD Itself
Highlights 37
Jerry E. Strom

Contemporary Trends in American Sign Language 39
Lawrence H. Forestal

The World Federation of the Deaf 43
Jack R. Gannon

America's First Multi-Generation Deaf Families
(A Genealogical Perspective) 49
Thomas W. Jones

A Conversation with Edward Miner Gallaudet 55
I. K. Jordan

Comité International des Sports des Sourds 57
Jerald Jordan

Does Repeating the Mistakes of the Past Protect the Innocent? Mainstreaming and Inclusion Revisited 61
Jess Freeman King

A Visit in South Africa 65
Aya Katharina Kremp

Historical Parallels Between the African American and Deaf American Communities 69
Christopher Krentz

The AAAD Story 75
Ira Lerner

Reams of Dreams 81
Raymond Luczak

Sneaking Away 85
Raymond Luczak

The Intentional Systematic Deconstruction of Mainstreaming 93
Brian L. Malzkuhn

Is Deaf History Bunk? 101
George Montgomery

The Great Treasure Hunt What We Can Learn from Researching "Deaf History"? 107
Matthew S. Moore

The Day Winston Churchill Came to Fulton, Missouri, and How the Missouri School for the Deaf Took Part in the Great Event 113
Richard D. Reed

To a Friend Few Deaf People Knew 117
Jerome D. Schein

History and Deaf Studies: An Essay 123
John S. Schuchman

E. M. Gallaudet Resolves a Problem 127
Edward L. Scouten

De'VIA — What an Odd Word!
(A Historical Perspective) 131
Deborah M. Sonnenstrahl

The Making of the Junior National Association of the Deaf 135
Frank R. Turk

Communication in Deaf Education: Retrospect and Prospect 141
John Vickrey Van Cleve

Deaf People and the Criminal Justice System 149
McCay Vernon

The Association of Late-Deafened Adults: Rationale, Highlights, History 155
Kathryn Woodcock